War at Both Wholesale and Retail.

At the close of the brief unpleasantness of 1898 we Spain $20,000,000 for "an option on a war" in the Philippines. Says the New York World. We took up the option; we have the war. By denying to the Filipinos even the promise of freedom in a far future we left them no alternative but to fight to the end or bid farewell to hope of liberty.

Our transports sail west with money and horses and men; they sail east again with the broken, the wounded, the insane. We burn the jungle villages and shoot down their people, and wherever our soldiers venture by twos and threes outside of the armed camps they are tortured and killed. The money cost is vast, the loss of life as lamentable as it is unnecessary.

Yet we have just bought more war. The Senate has ratified a treaty to pay Spain an additional $100,000,000 for the islands of Cebu and Cagayan, not included in the original deal—for the absolute ownership of the people of those islands, whose own wish we have not consulted.

We have bought war at wholesale and we have bought it at retail. It is now costing us $100,000,000 or more a year. How long before the country will decide to go out of the melancholy business?

For some time it has been said by some that the law giving a prisoner a life term in the penitentiary upon the third conviction if the jury so desires, and the fact is charged in the indictment is not constitutional, but the Court of Appeal has so decided in affirming the judgment of the Bourbon Circuit Court in the case of Burnam Brown against the Commonwealth. Brown, a negro, was convicted of maliciously shooting Flora Bradley, also colored, and under Section 1,130 of the Kentucky Statutes the third conviction for felony, was sentenced to life imprisonment in the State penitentiary. The Court of Appeals upholds the statute.—Winchester Democrat.

Winchester Court.

About 300 cattle on the market and most of them were sold. The quality fair, but first-class cattle were scarce, the demand exceeding the supply. There was a better feeling in the market than last Court day and many first-class cattle could have been sold. The best price of the day was 4 1/2 cents for a lot of nice yearlings, thin in order. Some that were sold by the head probably brought five cents or more.

T. I. Wills bought a lot of steers, 880 lbs., of Mat Cohen at 4 1/2 cts.

Jack Huls bought of Weil, 20 steers, weight 1123 lbs. at 4 1/2 c.

Mat Cohen sold to M. H. Bedford a lot of steers, 875 lbs. at 4 1/2 c.

Calloway Crawford bought of Z. T. Conner 8 heifers, about 700 lbs., at $33.

Charles Forkner sold 4 heifers, 425 lbs. weight, at $16.50 each.

Z. T. Conner sold 8 yearling steers, weight 200 lbs., at $23 each.

W. S. Thomas bought 18 heifers, wt. 450 lbs., paying $250.00 for the lot.

Brock & Railsback bought of Z. T. Conner, 70 hogs at $1.60.—Winchester Democrat.

Every now and then some person has an inclination to start a newspaper, which is supposed to fill a long-felt want. These would be editors announce that they are going to set the woods afire with their sheets, but in most cases they invariably peter out after a little flashing and sputtering and land in the newspaper graveyard. More money has been spent in trying to put newspapers on a firm foundation than in any other one industry.—Jackson Hustler.

Danger of Colds and La Grippe.

The greatest danger from colds and la grippe is their resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for these diseases we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia, which shows conclusively that it is a certain preventive of that dangerous malady. It will cure a cold or an attack of la grippe in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by J. W. Dawson & Bro. and Morgan McKinney.

What would you do if taken with colic or cholera morbus when your physician is away from home and the drug stores are closed? After one such emergency you will always keep Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in your home; but why wait until the horse is stolen before you lock the stable? For sale by J. W. Dawson & Bro. and Morgan McKinney.

We neglected to put Iron Mound at the head of our correspondent's letter in our last issue, but suppose most of our readers could judge from the reading matter where it was from. It was the last column on the first page.

What would you do if taken with colic or cholera morbus when your physician is away from home and the drug stores are closed? After one such emergency you will always keep Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in your home; but why wait until the horse is stolen before you lock the stable? For sale by J. W. The claim of other cough remedies to be as good as Chamberlain's are officially set at rest in the following testimonial of Mr. C. D. Ghes, an employee of Budden & Dennis Co., Gardiner, Me. He says: "I had kept adding a cold and cough in the winter of 1897, trying every cough medicine I heard of without permanent help, until one day I was in the drug store of Mr. Houlahan and he advised me to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and offered to pay back my money if I was not cured. My lungs and bronchial tubes were very sore at this time, but I was completely cured by this remedy, and have since always turned to it when I get a cold, and soon find relief. I also recommend it to my friends and am glad to say it is best of all cough medicines." For sale by J. W. Dawson & Bro. and Morgan McKinney.
